Fundación Moeve has announced the 2026 Social Value Award winners, recognizing the work of Apropadis 2.0, the Amigos Reunidos para Conseguir una Sonrisa Association, and Fegadi in Campo de Gibraltar. These organizations have been honored for their social impact, their commitment to the community, and their contribution to a fair and socially responsible energy transition.

Apropadis 2.0 from Algeciras has been recognized for its project Breaking down barriers with boccia: an adapted sports and personal autonomy program in Campo de Gibraltar, which will create the region's first permanent and accessible facility for adapted boccia, promoting social inclusion, community participation, and safe and consistent engagement in sports.

In addition, the Amigos Reunidos para Conseguir una Sonrisa Association from Los Barrios has been recognized for Small hands, big hearts: every smile cares for the planet, a socio-educational program aimed at children and teens with cancer and their families in Campo de Gibraltar. This program will create a space for social interaction, mutual support, emotional wellbeing, and learning in contact with nature, encouraging children to get actively involved in activities related to caring for and preserving the environment.

Finally, Fegadi Cocemfe from La Línea has received the award for its project Ecocapable: green agents for inclusion, which focuses on helping people with physical disabilities become agents of change, community environmental educators, and positive role models in society.

The Social Value Awards jury was chaired by Javier Ros, deputy delegate of the Andalusian Government in Campo de Gibraltar, accompanied by members Maite García, vice president of Social Welfare for the Association of Municipalities; Eva Gil, councilor for Social Affairs for the San Roque City Council; Pilar Cañete, manager of the Association of Major Industries (AGI) in Campo de Gibraltar; Pilar Ponce, a Moeve professional; and the heads of fundación Moeve in Andalusia and Cádiz, Jesús Velasco and Estrella Blanco, respectively.

The awards ceremony will be held on November 26, 2026, at the El Pósito building in San Roque, at an event that will bring together institutional representatives, social organizations, and members of the community. With this initiative, fundación Moeve reaffirms its commitment to promoting projects that create social value and help build a more just and inclusive society.
