

Fundación Cepsa donates over 9,000 km to the Tenerife Food Bank

- Fundación Cepsa makes donations on top of the contributions made by the Company's professionals
- Cepsa volunteers collaborated in the Food Banks Collection Campaign carried out in November, and contributed food to the last food collection for solidarity organized by the Fundación Cepsa

Fundación Cepsa donated fuel cards to the Tenerife Food Bank, to be exchanged at Cepsa service stations, for an amount equivalent to more than 9,000 kilometers, to help power the vehicles that this organization uses to carry out its work.

This donation comes from multiplying the number of volunteers of the Company that participated, last November, in the Great Collection of Food Banks, by 20 liters of fuel. The Company also doubles the kilos of food contributed by its professionals in the last food collection for solidarity made within the company.

Belén Machado, head of Communication and Social Action at Cepsa in the Canary Islands, visited the Tenerife Food Bank to make the donation. While she was there, she inquired about its current situation and was introduced to its Board of Directors, headed by its vice-president, Juan Gerardo Krawietz, and its secretary, Fernando Serrano.

Fundación Cepsa is a general interest, non-profit entity with the goal of undertaking initiatives to serve the needs and priorities of the local communities where its founder, COMPAÑÍA ESPAÑOLA DE PETRÓLEOS S.A.U. (Cepsa), conducts its activities. The areas of action for Fundación Cepsa are social, cultural, environmental, scientific-educational, and support for amateur sports.

Fundación Cepsa

info@fundacioncepsa.com

www.fundacioncepsa.com