

Fundación Cepsa donates petrol vouchers to Campo de Gibraltar Food Bank

- Cepsa volunteers collaborated in November's Food Bank Collection campaign

The Fundación Cepsa in San Roque has handed over petrol vouchers to the Campo de Gibraltar Food Bank to cover the fuel consumption of the vehicles that the organization uses to carry out its work.

The director of the Gibraltar-San Roque Refinery, Miguel Pérez de la Blanca, received the new president of the Food Bank, José Serrano, to make the donation. Mr Serrano told the new management about the Food Bank and how it operates in the area.

This donation came about through the charity food collection campaign, organized by the Spanish Food Banks in November and in which Cepsa professionals in Spain participated, through the Corporate Volunteer Program of the Fundación Cepsa. The Foundation undertook to donate liters of petrol per volunteer to the various delegations of the Food Banks.

The Fundación Cepsa collaborates in the organization of food collection campaigns that are held in the region. In 2009 and 2012, two projects of the regional entity were awarded one of the Social Value Awards. These awards are organized each year to help organize solidarity initiatives carried out by associations and organizations in the Campo de Gibraltar area.

Fundación Cepsa is a general interest, non-profit entity with the goal of undertaking initiatives to serve the needs and priorities of the local communities where its founder, COMPAÑÍA ESPAÑOLA DE PETRÓLEOS S.A.U. (Cepsa), conducts its activities. The areas of action for Fundación Cepsa are social, cultural, environmental, scientific-educational, and support for amateur sports.

Fundación Cepsa

info@fundacioncepsa.com

www.fundacioncepsa.com