Tenerife, May 26, 2025 – Fundación Moeve and the Pequeño Deseo Foundation have collaborated on a moving charity initiative held in Tenerife, which seeks to bring moments of happiness to hospitalized children. Through the corporate volunteer program, 22 professionals from Moeve have been involved in the creation of superpower kits, designed to transform the hospital environment into a space full of excitement, joy and hope.

The activity began with an inspiring talk from the Pequeño Deseo Foundation, where they explained how "these actions contribute to improving the emotional well-being of the little ones to fill their days in the hospital with fantasy and strength," emphasizing the key role of volunteers.

After that, the volunteers divided into teams to assemble the kits and write letters of encouragement, with the aim of offering emotional strength to both the children and their families.

Each set includes a cape, mask, decorated wristbands, and other accessories so the children can become real superheroes and superheroines for a while. In addition, the Pequeño Deseo Foundation has entrusted the Prodis Foundation with the complete handling of the kits, in another example of collaboration between social entities.

Belén Machado, head of Fundación Moeve in the Canary Islands, emphasizes that "it is very enriching to see how Moeve professionals get involved with such dedication." Each box of items carries a little piece of the love from those who made it. Knowing that you can bring a smile to someone's face or make a treatment more bearable is the greatest gift of all.

The Pequeño Deseo Foundation will be responsible for distributing the kits in the hospitals with which it collaborates on the island, ensuring that each one reaches the hands of a child who needs it. Furthermore, Fundación Moeve continues to promote its volunteer program, encouraging the participation and involvement of Moeve employees.
