Fundación Moeve has announced the winners of the 2025 edition of its Social Value Awards, recognizing the work of Fundación Prolibertas, AFA La Línea, and Fegadi in Campo de Gibraltar. These organizations have been honored for their social impact, their commitment to the community, and their contribution to a fair and socially responsible energy transition.

Fundación Prolibertas was recognized for its Semillas de Oportunidad project, an initiative that promotes the social and labor inclusion of people in vulnerable situations. Through training, guidance, and real opportunities, the project aims to strengthen personal autonomy and improve participants' quality of life.

Meanwhile, the Asociación de Familiares de Alzheimer de La Línea was recognized for its Camino al Bienestar program, which provides comprehensive care for people with Alzheimer's and offers emotional and educational support to their families, fostering more humane and healthy environments.

Finally, Fegadi received the award for its Aulas Inclusivas y Sostenibles project, focused on creating accessible, environmentally friendly educational spaces that encourage the participation of people with disabilities and promote more equitable education.

The jury for the Social Value Awards was chaired by Javier Rodríguez Ros, Deputy Councilor of the Regional Government of Andalusia in Campo de Gibraltar, and included Maite García, Vice President of Social Welfare of the Campo de Gibraltar Association of Municipalities; Paloma Cubillas, Director of the Higher Technical School of Engineering of Algeciras (ETSIA) at UCA; Jesús Velasco, Head of Fundación Moeve in Andalusia and the Canary Islands; and Manuel Martínez, a Moeve professional in San Roque. The jury secretary was Estrella Blanco, Head of Fundación Moeve in Campo de Gibraltar, who oversaw the deliberation process to ensure it ran smoothly.

The awards ceremony will be held at the end of November 2025 at the El Pósito building in San Roque, in an event that will bring together institutional representatives, social organizations, and members of the community. Through this initiative, Fundación Moeve reaffirms its commitment to supporting projects that create social value and help build a more just and inclusive society.

Fundación Moeve is a non-profit, general interest organization whose goal is to carry out work aimed at serving the needs and priorities of the local communities where its founder, Moeve, conducts its activities. Fundación Moeve's scopes of action are people, biodiversity, and social innovation.
